RALLYEMASTER NOTES

Thanks so much to everyone for participating in this rallye and a special thanks to Rachel Congress and Ted Tanabe (car 9) for getting in the spirit of the theme by dressing up as Sarah Sallie and one of her ghostly friends.

For any rallyemasters who might be interested in making use of GPS Coursemarkers for future rallyes, please feel free to get in touch (info@TheRallyeClub.org) and we'd be happy to work with you to get set up!

SCORING NOTES

Every car remembered to knock on their dashboard to answer the Seance Medium's questions and all but one listed Fred Larsen as their driver

Three teams caught all the implications of Hemlock being unnamed

Five cars realized that RI 1 never came into effect so couldn't be deleted by a DRI

None of the teams recorded both L78 and R78 (thank you to Cris for the inspiration – this gimmick, including the CM label, was a direct homage to February's Wicked Rallye: For Good)

Seven teams turned for at least one dead end and five caught the lagging RIs caused by the fact that they were never onto Acalanes because of the dead end sign at that intersection

One car realized that RI 13 was the only good RI, in honor of Winchester's favorite number

No one realized the Magic 8 Ball was actually gimmicked and that "All Signs Say Yes" was in fact a Seance Medium instruction
