What's a Gimmick Rallye, and who can compete?

A Gimmick Rallye is not a race, but a test of one's ability to follow instructions over a predetermined course. Think of the roads and streets as the game board and your car as the playing piece. Previous rallye experience is not required. First Timers and Beginners will get extra help getting started. All you need are paper, a pencil or pen, a clipboard, a friend or two, and a car to put them all in. Oh, and a sense of humor helps.
